She was Big Brother 27's class clown, whether she always meant to be or not. Groovy Ava Pearl may have been born 50 years too late for her Flower Power vibes but as a member of the jury she does have a big say in who is crowned this year's winner.

John Powell: You spent a lot of time with the final three describe their auras to us?

Ava Pearl: Oh, I would say Morgan has maybe a light blue aura. Vinnie has a deep blue aura. So, that's kind of cool and interesting. Maybe Ashley's more of like a purple? Usually, purple is a sign of creative thinking. Light blue is usually a sign of fixing problems. Deep blue is usually a sign of emotional intelligence.

John Powell: You worked so hard to save Will. Why didn't you play a more active game in general?

Ava Pearl: Well, I don't know. I don't know. I did the best I could. Oopsie, poopsie!

John Powell: You had a heavy heart when Rachel exited the game. Do you feel that way now? Why did you choose Vince over her?

Ava Pearl: I chose Vince over her because I felt that there was a possibility of Vinnie choosing Lauren and Rachel told me not to pick Lauren. So, it was my kind of way of just being like: You know what? I'll pass the buck off on to him and then I get no blood on my hands. Who would have thought Rachel would go home? Although I felt bad at the same time, it's a game, and I guess the puzzle was hard so what are you going to do?

John Powell: With your house meeting you tried to drive a wedge between Vince and Morgan. Do you think what you said resonated with them individually and what do you think about their game relationship?

Ava Pearl: I don't know if what I said resonated with them. I don't think I said anything that they probably already didn't know in their gut. I think that they have a very good friendship and that definitely affects their closeness in the game. I don't think anything I could say could really change that.
